

ALLIANCE4L_BRIDGE RESEARCH INTEGRITY SEMINAR

The Alliance4Life_BRIDGE FG2 is excited to invite FG2 members, research integrity specialists, senior postdocs and PhD students connected to the topics to a 2-day seminar featuring:

- Research integrity (Code of Conduct for Research Integrity)
- Good research practice (Research integrity counsellors)

Event details:

October 2, 2025 (Thursday)

-
- 08:45 – 09:00 Registration
- 09:00 – 09:45 Understanding ethical competence: What is it and why scientists need it. Professor Margit Sutrop
- 09:45 – 11:00 Experiences from Research Integrity Counsellors of UTARTU
- 11:00 – 12:00 E-learning research ethics - Design, Develop, Deliver. Workshop by Professor Doris Schröder, University of Central Lancashire
- 12:00 – 12:45 Lunch
- 12:45 – 14:45 E-learning research ethics - Design, Develop, Deliver. Workshop by Professor Doris Schröder, University of Central Lancashire
- 14:45 – 15:00 Pause
- 15:00 – 16:15 Two parallel workshops from Centre for Ethics
- 16:15 – 16:45 Conclusions
- 19:00 – 21:00 Dinner in the University Cafe (Ülikooli Street 20), playing a Discussion Game about Values: Estonians' 100 Choices

October 3, 2025 (Friday)

-
- 08:30 – 08:45 Introduction to the day
- 08:45 – 10:15 Responsible conduct of research I. Workshop by Professor Mariette van den Höven, Amsterdam University Medical Centers
- 10:15 – 10:30 Coffee break
- 10:30 – 11:45 Responsible conduct of research I. Workshop by Professor Mariette van den Höven, Amsterdam University Medical Centers
- 11:45 – 12:15 Discussion on how to move forward. Conclusion.
- 12:15 – 13:00 Lunch

Main location: Centre for Ethics, University of Tartu, Jakobi Street 2, Tartu, Estonia

The seminar will be recorded but online participation is not provided.

Each partner is allocated two guaranteed places.

Registration

The project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon EUROPE research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 101136453. This document reflects the view of Alliance4Life's consortium and the European Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information it contains.

ALLIANCE4L_BRIDGE RESEARCH INTEGRITY SEMINAR ADDITIONAL SIDE EVENTS

The Alliance4Life_BRIDGE FG2 is excited to invite FG2 members, research integrity specialists, senior postdocs and PhD students connected to the topics of research integrity to public lectures:

Event details:

October 1, 2025 (Wednesday)

16:15 – 17:45 Lecture by Doris Schröder, University of Central Lancashire: Towards Equitable Research Partnerships in International Research – how to combat helicopter research and ethics dumping

October 3, 2025 (Friday)

14:15 – 15:45 Lecture by Mariëtte van den Höven, Amsterdam University Medical Centers: Empowerment as key to changing research culture

Main location: Centre for Ethics, University of Tartu, Jakobi Street 2, Tartu, Estonia

Public lectures are free to attend to everybody, there is no registration.

The project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon EUROPE research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 101136453. This document reflects the view of Alliance4Life's consortium and the European Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information it contains.

